

Transnational Project Meeting in Florence

Project partners convened in Florence for the final coordination meeting of the BIG GAME project, celebrating its success in engaging approximately 400 teachers and 600 secondary school students across Europe over 30 months of the activities.

Learn More

Announcement: The BIG GAME Good Practices Selection

The BIG GAME Project Team proudly announces the selection of 10 outstanding good practices for the Digital Bank, chosen based on selection criteria. We thank all participating teams for their contributions to the project.

Learn More

The BIG GAME Competition Winning Teams

The BIG GAME Project Team announces competition winners Hazel Tarantulas (FI), Green Elephants (RO), and Black Bobcats (RO), extends honourable mentions to other high-performing teams, and expresses gratitude to all participating teams for their contributions.

Learn More

The Multiplier Events Organisation

Several multiplier events were organized in the last months of the BIG GAME, mainly in Finland, Romania, Italy and Estonia to disseminate the outcomes of THE BIG GAME project.

Learn More

DiPP2024 Publication

At the DiPP2024 International conference in Burgas, Bulgaria, EU-Track will present the best results from the BIG GAME project, with the event organized by multiple academic and cultural institutions.

Learn More